

OUTLINE FOR THE SELF-STUDY REPORT FOR NMMS INITIAL ACCREDITATION

I) Self-Study Report Prologue

- A) Provide a brief narrative that tells the ACCME the history of your continuing medical education (CME) Program.
- B) Describe the leadership structure and organizational structure of your CME Program in an organizational chart.

II) Purpose and Mission (Criterion 1)

- A) Attach your CME mission statement.
- B) Highlight each of the required components (i.e., (1) purpose, (2) content areas, (3) target audience, (4) types of activities, and (5) expected results of the program, articulated in terms of changes in competence, performance, or patient outcomes. (C1)

III) Educational Activities (Criteria 2-7 and Policies)

The next set of items is designed to gather information on your incorporation of the ACCME's requirements into your program of continuing medical education.

- A) Tell us the 'story' of how you develop continuing medical education. Pick two of your CME activities as examples. Using these examples, within the context of your organization's processes and mechanisms, describe for us all of the steps you went through to create these educational activities.

In your narrative for Section III (A) the ACCME will be looking for,

1. The professional practice gap that the activities were addressing	(C2)
2. The educational need(s) that you determined were underlying the gap(s) for your learners	(C2)
3. What competence or performance or patient outcome the activity was designed to change.	(C3)
4. How the activity matched the current or potential scope of professional practice (research, educational, administrative or clinical) of your learners.	(C4)
5. Your explanation of why the format of the activity you chose was appropriate for the setting, objectives and desired results of the activity	(C5)
6. The desirable physician attribute(s) you associated with the activity	(C6)

7. The mechanism(s) your organization used to a) identify and b) resolve conflicts of interest for everyone in a position to control educational content (i.e., teachers, authors, planners, reviewers, and others who controlled content).	(C7 SCS2)
8. i. A description of your planning process that is independent of the control of any ACCME-defined commercial interest and the mechanisms implemented to ensure that you, as provider, retain complete control of the CME content. Relate your description to each element of SCS 1. ii. Under very rare circumstances, an accredited provider might choose to develop activities that include the presentation of discovery, research or new knowledge by employees of ACCME-defined commercial interests. When that happens, it is important that you demonstrate through your description that there are mechanisms in place that provide appropriate safeguards to the independence of the activity. (See http://accme.org/ask-accme/can-provider-allow-oral-or-written-reporting-scientific-research-employee-commercial for more information on this topic.) If your organization is involved in these rare circumstances, please: a.) Describe the factors you consider in determining an appropriate role of an ACCME-defined commercial interest employee in planning and/or presenting accredited CME; and b.) Describe the mechanisms implemented to ensure that you, as provider, retain complete control of the CME content.	(C7 SCS1)
9. Your organization’s process(es) and mechanism(s) for disclosure to the learners of relevant financial relationships of all persons in a position to control educational content.	(C7 SCS 6.1
10. Your organization’s process(es) and mechanism(s) for disclosure to the learners of the source of support from commercial interests, including “in-kind” support.	– 6.5)

B) You may feel that the two examples in Section III (A) do not provide you with adequate opportunity to sufficiently describe how you apply the ACCME’s requirements in the development of your CME activities. Please feel free, in Section III (B), to provide other examples and descriptions that provide the ACCME with DIFFERENT information or DIFFERENT strategies that were not available in the two examples chosen in Section III (A), above. This is especially important for a description of your implementation of the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support: *Standards to Ensure Independence in CME Activities*SM.

Recording and verifying physician participation

- A) Describe the mechanism your organization uses to record and verify physician participation for six years from the date of your CME activities.
- B) Using the information from one of the example activities in Section III (A) or (B), above, show the ACCME the information or reports your mechanism can produce for an individual participant.

A) It is an expectation of the ACCME that,

The content of CME activities does not promote the proprietary interests of any commercial interests. (i.e., there is not commercial bias)	(C10 SCS 5.1)
CME activities give a balanced view of therapeutic options, and that	(C10 SCS 5.2)
The content of CME activities is in Compliance with the ACCME's content validity value statements*	(Policy on Content Validation)

ACCME's Policy on Content Validation: All the recommendations involving clinical medicine in a CME activity must be based on evidence that is accepted within the profession of medicine as adequate justification for their indications and contraindications in the care of patients. All scientific research referred to, reported or used in CME in support or justification of a patient care recommendation must conform to the generally accepted standards of experimental design, data collection and analysis. Providers are not eligible for ACCME accreditation or reaccreditation if they present activities that promote recommendations, treatment or manners of practicing medicine that are not within the definition of CME, or known to have risks or dangers that outweigh the benefits or known to be ineffective in the treatment of patients.

Describe how your CME activities and your program of continuing medical education ensure that these three expectations are fulfilled (e.g., planning, procedures, policy, monitoring).
